RE: Healy, Candice
Docket No.: 2:15CR00335-001

REPORT ON INDIVIDUAL UNDER SUPERVISION

Dear Judge McNulty:

On November 29, 2017, the above mentioned was sentenced by Your Honor to an imprisonment term of 80 months, to be followed by three (3) years of supervised release for Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Substance. Healy was ordered to pay a $100 special assessment and abide by the special condition of Alcohol/Drug Testing and Treatment. On January 13, 2022, supervision commenced in the Eastern District of New York based on residency.

On February 1, 2022, Healy reported to the Eastern District of New York, U.S. Probation Office and was seeking Suboxone. She asked how she could refill her prescription and self-reported she became addicted during her term of imprisonment. Healy was directed not to obtain Suboxone on her own and was referred to TriCenter, an outpatient drug treatment facility located in Brooklyn, New York. TriCenter prescribed Suboxone and she has reportedly been taking it as directed; they are working on a plan to safely wean her off the substance.

On February 7, 2022, the probation officer received correspondence from Bureau of Prisons advising that Healy sent an e-mail to Chris Cole, a Unit Manager in the Federal Detention Center in Philadelphia, looking to get in contact with another inmate, Tamika Ritter, and asking the status of her well-being. The probation officer questioned Healy about the contact, and she reported that she was Ritter's girlfriend while in custody and reached out because she hadn't heard from her in a few days. The probation officer directed Healy to stop communicating with Ritter, to which she agreed. Chris Cole confirmed Healy has not attempted any further contact with Ritter.

On March 9, 2022, Healy tested positive for alcohol. When the probation officer questioned her about the matter, she reported she was spending time with a friend the night prior and drinking alcohol. The probation officer reprimanded Healy for consuming alcohol while in substance use treatment and cautioned further use may result in a violation. Healy advised she understood, and all subsequent drug test taken have been negative. Healy's counselor reported that she has been compliant in treatment thus far.

In March 2022, Healy moved in with her mother in Flushing, New York and currently works full time at a hotel as a receptionist. She is also enrolled in college online with California Coast University and is pursuing an associate degree in psychology. Healy also satisfied her special assessment.

The Eastern District of New York, U.S. Probation Office is respectfully requesting for no formal court action to be taken at this time. Furthermore, they are respectfully requesting for a Transfer of Jurisdiction based on Healy's residency in New York, and for all future non-compliance to be addressed in their district.

Should the Court agree with our recommendation, we respectfully request that Your Honor review and sign the attached Probation Form 12A and Form 22, transferring jurisdiction. If Your Honor wish to discuss this matter, Supervising U.S. Probation Officer Elisa Martinez can be reached at (973) 445-8519.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY,
Chief U.S. Probation Officer
